5. The firm will liable to complete the supply within stipulated time limit by confirming quality, quantity and timeline up to the entire satisfaction of second party.
6. The first party warrants that the Goods supplied under the Contract are new, unused, of the most recent or current models and that they incorporate all recent improvements in design and materials unless provided otherwise in the Contract. The first party further warrants that all Goods supplied under this Contract shall have no defect, arising from design, materials, or workmanship (except when the design and/or material is required by the second party specifications) or from any act or omission of the first party, that may develop under normal use of the supplied Goods in the conditions prevailing in the country of second party.
7. The second party shall promptly notify the first party in writing of any claims arising under this warranty.
8. The second party, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of Contract, by written notice of default sent to the first party, may terminate this Contract in whole or in part:
 - a. if the first party fails to deliver any or all of the Goods within the period(s) specified in the Contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the second party; or
 - b. if the first party fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the Contract.
 - c. if the first party, in the judgment of the second party has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the Contract.

For the purpose of this clause:

“Corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.

“Fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Borrower, and includes collusive practice among Bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the Borrower of the benefits of free and open competition.

9. The firm will be liable to complete the supply within stipulated time limit i.e. 90 days after the confirmation of LC from Manufacturer
10. In case the firm failed to complete the supply till due date a penalty as per detail below will be charged from the firm.
 - a. Penalty @ 2% for late supply up to 15 days.
 - b. Penalty @ 5% for late supply beyond 15 days.Once the maximum is reached, the second party may consider termination of the contract.
11. The 1st party shall be responsible for the transportation and transportation charges. The 1st party shall complete the supply and installation of goods within the stipulated period as mentioned in the supply order (imported items) from the date of execution of this agreement or as extended or reduce by the 2nd party. In case of failure of 1st party to supply the goods within the stipulated period, the 2nd party will be at liberty to make an alternate arrangement at the risk and cost of 1st party and the 1st party shall be liable to pay the entire cost/amount to the alternate supplier according to the demand of the 2nd party. In the event of commuting a default the 2nd party will be at liberty to take any Civil/Criminal action against the 1st party in accordance with law. A fine up to 10% of the purchase price shall also be inflicted against the first party.
12. The 1st party shall be responsible for any defect in goods or supply of goods. The entire goods will be free of any charges and encumbrance of what so nature and the 2nd party or its agent will be authorized at all reasonable time to view, check and examine the conditions of the supplied goods.
13. Upon demand made by the 2nd party at any time or from time to time, to execute all such instruments, deeds or documents which the 2nd party may in its sole discretion require, the 1st party will do the needful.
14. The 1st party will be furnishing all such information as the 2nd party may at any time or from time to time required relating to the position of goods and pecuniary liability of the 1st party or otherwise whatever.
15. The first party shall not, without the prior written consent of second party, disclose the Contract, or any provision thereof, or any specification, plan, drawing, pattern, sample, or information furnished by or on behalf of the second party in connection therewith, to any person other than a person employed by the first party in the performance of the Contract. Disclosure to any such employed person shall be made in confidence and shall extend only as far as may be necessary for purposes of such performance.
16. The first party shall provide such packing of the Goods as is required to prevent their damage or deterioration during transit to their final destination, as indicated in the Contract. The packing shall be sufficient to withstand, without limitation, rough handling during transit and exposure to extreme temperatures, salt and precipitation during transit, and open storage. Packing case size and weights shall take into consideration, where appropriate, the remoteness of the Goods' final destination and the absence of heavy handling facilities at all points in transit.
17. The packing, marking, and documentation within and outside the packages shall comply strictly with such special requirements as shall be expressly provided for in the Contract, including additional requirements, if any, and in any subsequent instructions ordered by the second party.
18. The 2nd party will be at liberty, at all-time and shall have the right to return the goods, provided/delivered by the 1st party with regard to quality quantity, value or otherwise fitness for use. Notwithstanding any contained hereinabove, it is hereby agreed by both parties that the 2nd party at all times be at liberty and shall have the right to cancel or reduce the quantity, without assigning any reason.
19. The 1st party shall be bound under this agreement to provide the warranty and services of equipment which must be Five years with spare parts from the date of installation. The 1st party shall be bound to keep available the spare parts for 10 years.
20. The 1st party shall deposit an amount of Rs. 10% of the purchase price as service security, which will be refundable after expiry of the period of warranty/guaranty and services after necessary adjustments.

21. The first party shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

For purposes of this clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the Supplier and not involving the Supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the Procuring agency in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, and freight embargoes.

If a Force Majeure situation arises, the first party shall promptly notify the second party in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the second party in writing, the first party shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

22. Any notice given by one party to the other pursuant to this Contract shall be sent to the other party in writing or by cable, telex, or facsimile and confirmed in writing to the other party's address specified in contract.

23. A notice shall be effective when dispatched on the given address of the supplier in contract via above means.

24. Payment to the supplier shall be on presenting a bill in the shape of summary duly verified by finance department. The bill shall be counter verified from the end using department before clearance. Demand in violation of this clause of agreement may lead to imposition of reasonable amount of fine.

25. The goods shall be open to inspection at all times during the contractual period. The inspection of good shall be carried out by a representative from purchase, legal, quality control, finance or end using department.

26. Besides the above conditions the 1st party shall be bound to fulfill the defacing if found at any time and for the purpose shall be ready to sign and execute fresh agreement if needed.

27. Any difference or dispute which may arise between the parties of their representative agents regarding right and liabilities of the parties or any other matter relating to this deed may be referred to the Board of Governor and their decision will be final in all respect and the 1st party will not be authorized to sue the 2nd party before any forum, court or tribunal anywhere.
